Details:

Many applicants experience divorce/separation anxiety, which is perfectly natural in such circumstances, therefore the Islamic Council in its duty of care provides the opportunity at no extra cost for a counselling session to be made available as part of the application process.

Would you be interested in the counselling session?

How did you come to hear of the Islamic council?

(these could appear perhaps: TV ad, Radio ad, google, papers: Asian News, my local Bazar, friend/family)
